

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Stan Day is a native of South Dakota--born in western South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Stan has been employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Fort Meade, South Dakota, as a meat cutter and cook foreman; and,

WHEREAS, Stan has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Stan is a devoted husband to his wife, Ruth, a good father to their three sons; and,

WHEREAS, On February 10, after more than 28 years of service to the medical center and this great state, Stan is retiring and taking time to travel:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 10, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
